FOREWORD

I feel extremely happy that the New Catalogous Catalogorum, (NCC) the famous Indological project assigned to and carried out at the University of Madras is nearing completion. Herewith, I am delighted to present another four volumes of NCC (XXXIII-XXXVI) before the Indologists of the world in addition to seven volumes already published last year. During last 10 years, we have seen 22 volumes of New Catalogus Catalogorum being published in addition to 14 volumes published from 1935 to 2000. It is also worth mentioning that NCC has been the best seller of our Publication Division and almost all the copies have been sold out. Being a monumental work containing references of varied subjects, it has been the store house of ancient Indian wisdom. Works on almost all Indological subjects including Alankara, Vyakarana, Linguistics, Philosophy and Jyotisa are largely covered in these volumes and they cater to the needs of providing basic references to the research works in Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit, bringing out the hidden treasures to the fore and aiding to our existing knowledge in ancient Indian History and Culture.

The University is proud to have such a project, which is not only nationally, but also internationally acclaimed. Considering its importance, the Indologists from India and abroad are extending required support to this project by sharing their views and experiences and data which they have collected for their individual research projects. The credit of achieving such an enviable goal by giving his enormous time for preparing these volumes goes to Professor Siniruddha Dash, the Director of the project and the Chief Editor of the volumes, who is the prime source of inspiration for the team that has undertaken such a herculean task. I have little doubt that the publication of all the NCC volumes will be the landmark achievement in the history of the publication division of the University of Madras.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank the team of NCC working under the dynamic leadership of Prof. Siniruddha Dash, for their relentless work and yeomen service to the University as well as to the world of Indological research. In spite of encountering financial, administrative and such other problems, they have been able to bring out all these 22 volumes which deserve our hearty appreciation. I would also like to thank those who have helped and encouraged the project directly and/or indirectly for its completion.

I extend my sincere thanks to National Mission for Manuscripts (NMM), Ministry of Culture, Government of India for extending their financial aid for completion of this Project. Our Thanks are also due to the Government of Tamil Nadu and University Grants Commission for their valuable support.

(R.Thandavan)

PREFACE

The Volume XXXVI begins with the entry Śrītattva and ends with Śyārāmitisūtramuhūrta. The concept of Śrī developed in Viśiṣṭādvaita in the early stages is very popular. The works related to Śrī like Śrītattva, Śrītantra etc. find place in this volume. Authors like Śrīdatta, Śrīdhara, Śrīnātha, Śrīnivāsa, Śrīpati, Śrīpāda and Śrīpāla are entered with their different identities. Most interesting with Śrīnivāsa is that it sometimes leads to confusion as it carries the same name to different generations. The grandson, son, father and grandfather and disciple all are represented by this one name.

Works like Śrībhāṣya is entered with different related topics. Important works like Śrīmukhadarpaṇa by Śivarāma Śarman giving the genealogy of Kāmakoṭīpīṭha of Śaṅkarācārya can be found here. Entries like Śrīraṅga occurs as author but works like Śrīraṅgakṣetramāhātmya, Śrīraṅgagadya, Śrīraṅgamāhātmya are important works of Vaiṣṇava philosophy of south. Different works have been recorded beginning with Śrīrādhā and Śrīrāma. Important works like Śrīvacanabhūṣaṇa by Pillai Lokācārya is recorded with its 5 commentaries. Allied works on Śrīvacanabhūṣaṇa such as Śrīvacanabhūṣaṇaparāmarśa, Śrīvacanabhūṣaṇamīmāsā etc. find a place in this volume. The celebrated authors like Śrīvatsalāñchana, Śrīvatsāṅka, Śrīvatsavyāsa, Śrīvatsadakṣiṇāmūrti, Śrīvatsākṣayaraṅganātha etc. are documented with their various texts. The tantra works like Śrīvidyā in its various aspects such as Śrīvidyāmantra, Śrīvidyācakra, Śrīvidyākarma, Śrīvidyāgaṇapati, Śrīvidyāpaddhati, Śrīvidyānyāsa, Śrīvidyāpāñcākṣarī, Śrīvidyāpāṭala, Śrīvidyāratnasūtra, Śrīvidyārcanapaddhati, Śrīvidyāvilāsa, Śrīvidyāstotra etc. are also recorded. More important work Śrīsūkta is indexed with all its commentaries and other related entries.

Famous names like Śrīharṣa is also to be noticed here. Because of the historicity of the title Śrīharṣa there are different authors in the same name are classified on the basis of their identities. Works like Śrūtabodha is found to be ascribed to both Kālidāsa and Vararuci, but on the basis of the description given in catalogues, they have been clubbed. The title Śrūtabodha is also entered as the name of a commentary on Vṛttaratnākara. Dharma works like Śrutigītā of Bhāgavata and Śatkarma find a place here. Jain authors like Śrutasāgara, works like Śrutaskandha form a part of this volume. A number of entries on Śruti like Śrutirahasya, Śrutilakṣaṇa and more Vedantic works are noteworthy entries. Works like Śrutisāra can be found in different philosophical schools. Vedic works like Śrautaprayoga and Śrautasūtra are recorded in their different schools. They are also followed with their respective commentaries. Works beginning with Śleṣa and Śloka are collected and arranged. Similarly Dharma works in their different aspects and implications also find mentioned here.

Important grammatical work Ṣaṭkāraka with texts in favor (maṇḍana) and against (khaṇḍana) are noteworthy entries. Tantra works are also analyzed and arranged in order. Jain entries like Ṣaḍāvaśyakasūtra with their commentaries are well presented. Philosophical works like Ṣaḍalaśrauta and Ṣaḍdarśanasamuccaya are also some important entries which speak of the importance of the Ṣaṣṭi and its related works are enlisted with their respective orders. Most important is the works related to Ṣaḍaśakarma are arranged. In addition, Dharma works like Ṣoḍaśa and Ṣoḍaśī with their connected entries are a few of the large number of such entries in this volume.

I take this opportunity to thank the University of Madras especially our beloved Vice-Chancellor, Professor R. Thandavan, because of whose keen interest these volumes could be published. My special thanks are due to the Registrar, University of Madras for his kind cooperation and timely action.

I feel happy to extend my sincere thanks to Dr. M. Sakthivel, Former Director and Prof. Godavarisha Mishra, Present Director of Publication Division, University of Madras for making it possible to publish these volumes. Needless to say that it is the National Mission for Manuscripts (NMM), Ministry of Culture, Government of India, which facilitated financial support to complete the work and also University Grant Commission (UGC) for its support for publication. I put on record my indebtedness to both these organizations.

I offer my hearty thanks to my friends and scholars, interested in this work, for their continuous moral support.

Last but not the least I express my thanks to the staff both teaching and non-teaching of the Department of Sanskrit and Staff of the Central Office, O.R.I. Marina Campus and Finance Section of the University of Madras for their kind cooperation.

Words fail adequately to thank my team of scholars who are working in the New Catalogus Catalogorum (NCC) Project under the NMM grant and who have given their best for the completion of these volumes.

-or Ṣaṭcakra-nirūpaṇa or °prabheda or °bheda or °vivarāṇa or °cintāmaṇi or °prakāśa or °prakaraṇa or °yogavivarāṇa or °yoga-prakaraṇa by Pūrṇānanda Parama-hansa. This text constitutes the sixth chapter of the well known Śākta text Śrītattvacintāmaṇi; although only a few of the mss. record this fact. There exists a controversy about its origin. According to one commentator this work forms part of the Kaivalyakalikātantra, while according to some mss. it is a commentary by Pūrṇānanda on Virūpākṣa-pañcāśikā (of Virūpākṣa).

Some mss. attribute it to Brahmānanda, Pūrṇānanda's preceptor. But Hpr. I. confirms Pūrṇānanda to be the a. of this work. Some mss. call this as Yogavivarāṇa or Yoga-prakāśa. Extr. differ at some places.

About NCC:

The New Catalogus Catalogorum (NCC) is a unique Catalogue containing information, mainly of unpublished manuscripts as well as published books prepared out of the data culled out from around 1500 published catalogues and 200 hand-lists, collected from famous National and International Libraries and Research Institutes. The work is encyclopedic in nature and gives detailed information such as name of catalogues and bibliographical references about available texts written in Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit in ancient India and that of authors who have contributed to these subjects.

The NCC Project was started in the year 1935 at the University of Madras with Professor S. Kuppuswami Sastri as the Chief Editor. The first volume was published in the year 1949 with Professor Kunhan Raja as the Editor-in-Chief and he was actively assisted by Professor V. Raghavan. The NCC project work went on continuously with grant received from Central and State Govts., and fourteen volumes (Vol. I - XIV) were published till the year 2000. In the year 2000, with Professor Dash taking up the mantle of NCC, and with the substantial financial Assistance from National Mission for Manuscripts (NMM), Ministry of Culture, Govt. of India, the project work was expedited. The NMM has sanctioned 75 lakhs for the project during the 10th plan period and eleven volumes (XV-XXV) have been brought out during 2007 and 2011. Being satisfied by the progress of the project work and the publication of volumes, the NMM sanctioned a further grant of 2 crores during 11th plan period for the continuance of the work and another eleven volumes (XXVI-XXXVI) are published which is definitely a land-mark achievement and a substantial contribution to the world of Indological research. Another three volumes: XXXVII-XXXIX, already submitted, are in the pipeline and expected to come out very shortly.
